Joke of the Month

Two morons go fishing. They catch a lot of fish and return to the shore.
1st moron: -I hope you remember the spot where we caught all those fish.
2nd moron: -Yes, I made an 'X' on the side of the boat to mark the spot.
1st moron: -You idiot! How do you know we'll get the same boat?

Recipe of the Month

Spanish Style Striped Bass

- 2 lbs. Striped Bass fillets, trimmed and cut into serving size portions
- 2 tomatoes, medium size, thinly sliced
- 1/2 cup green pepper, chopped
- 1 cucumber, small, thinly sliced
- 1/2 cup onion, chopped
- 1 clove garlic minced
- 2 tbsp. Butter or margarine
- 2 tbsp. Parsley
- 1 tbsp. White wine
- 2 tbsp. Lemon juice
- 1/2 tsp. Marjoram

Prepare striped bass fillets by cutting fillets in half removing the dark flesh along the dark lateral line that runs through the center of the fillet. Also remove any dark flesh on the side of the fillet that had the skin and along the belly area. Cut trimmed fillets into serving size portions and place in a greased baking dish. Arrange tomato and cucumber slices on top of the fish. In a saucepan, cook onion, green pepper and minced garlic in butter until onion is tender but not brown. Remove from heat and stir in parsley, wine, lemon juice and marjoram. Spoon sauce over the fish. Bake in an oven preheated to 375°F for 20 to 25 minutes or until fish begins to flake easily with a fork. Serves 6.
